CAMPUS NEWS

Congratulations are in order for Anthony M. ("Tony") Aspras, Princeton Seminary's Dining Service Manager.

Tony is the winner of the Slater Service "Manager of the Month" award. He was feted at a luncheon last week. Mr. Henry F. Dylla, Regional General Manager of the Slater School and College Services, presented him with a transistor radio inset with a commemorative plaque; and the food service employees at Princeton Seminary gave Tony a desk set.

The Manager of the Month citation reads, in part: "Tony gets the nod by excelling in many operating areas: Good food production controls and a good menu pattern . . . a close working relationship with the Princeton Board of Health. In addition to giving the operation a consistent 'A' rating, the Health Officers tell us it's the cleanest food establishment in Princeton.. . . . Campus relations - This is the area where our Manager of the Month really excels . . ." and "Dollars - Tony works closely with our liaison, Mr. William Lawder, Treasurer of the Seminary, in developing the budget for the food service and then goes all out to maintain the budget despite the inflationary trends."

Tony, who has been at Princeton more than ten years, has an overall service with ARA of over twenty years. He lives in Jackson, New Jersey, with his wife, Mary. His son Michael is a Manager in S&C Mid-Atlantic Region at Chatham College, near Pittsburgh. His other son, Nickie, is a student at Montclair State College.

What Slater School and College Services have not said is the number of special luncheons and dinners Tony has managed for the Seminary and its guests, so that they need worry only about notifying him in advance of important meetings; the number of students whom he has helped train in the work of the food services; the real enthusiasm which he has brought both to his work and to his relations with other Seminary personnel; the unsung and often unnoticed extra personal work he puts into his very exacting and detailed job.

Congratulations and thanks, Tony, from us all.

CAMPUS NEWS NOTE

DR. BERNHARD W. ANDERSON'S translation of Noth's UBERLIEFERUNGSGESCHICHTE DES PENTATEUCH, "A History of Pentateuchal Traditions," was published by Prentice-Hall on January 3d.

Included in the present edition are the author's prefaces to the German version (1948) and the present translation, and an important essay-introduction by Dr. Anderson. He writes: "The great merit of Noth's study of the Pentateuch is that it seeks to penetrate into the early period which was creative and decisive in the history of the traditions. Unlike Wellhausen . . he is concerned for the antiquity of Israel's oral tradition. Unlike Gunkel . . he does not allow the ancient faith of Israel to fade out into universal human experience. He understands Israel as a unique historical community, bound together by a common allegiance to Yahweh and by a faith expressed in the re-telling of the events that constituted the life-story of the people and the context of their knowledge of God. Noth says emphatically that he does not claim to offer any final solution to the problems of the Pentateuch, but is concerned to pose the questions in a new way. In so doing, he has already opened up new horizons and has given a major stimulus to scholarly research."

In providing a lucid translation of this "fundamental study of the history of the formation of the Pentateuch" Dr. Anderson has opened up new horizons for many readers and scholars unable to assimilate Noth's sometimes difficult prose. The introductory essay places Noth's traditio-historical method firmly in the context of 20th century biblical research. Dr. Anderson's other works include "Understanding the Old Testament." "Creation Versus Chaos" and (as editor) "The Old Testament and Christian Faith."

ENVIRONMENTAL NOTE

Americans can have a cleaner environment and save $12 billion a year! A National Wildlife Federation study indicates that the typical American family can save $113 annually with a national cleanup campaign which will reduce air pollution damages by 66 percent and save $87 annually, while slashing water pollution damages by 90 percent.

The Council on Environmental Quality estimates that polluted air results in the following annual damages: human health - $6 billion; materials and vegetation - $4.9 billion; and lowering of property values - $5 billion. Water pollution, at a conservative estimate, costs the U.S.A. $12.8 billion per year.

Citizens eventually pay the national bill for pollution; the average family's share is $481 annually. A reasonable cleanup program would cost about $10.2 billion annually--$170 per family. The resulting damage reduction--$22.2 billion--works out to a per-family benefit of $370. Thus, by paying $170 for abatement, each family can reduce its pollution damage cost altogether $200 net.

NOTES

THE REVEREND DR. JOHN R. CLAYPOOL, a native of Kentucky, grew up in Nashville, Tennessee. He is a graduate of Mars Hill Junior College, North Carolina, and Baylor University and holds Bachelor of Divinity and Doctor of Theology degrees from Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky.

After ordination he served pastorates in Richmond, Kentucky; Hartsville, Tennessee; and Decatur, Georgia, before being named pastor of the Crescent Hill Baptist Church in Louisville, Kentucky, in 1960. He assumed his present duties in October 1971.

In Louisville Dr. Claypool was President of the Executive Board of the Louisville Baptist Ministers Conference and Chairman of the Christian Life Commission and President of the Kentucky Baptist Convention. He served on the executive boards of the Louisville Area Conference on Religion and Race, the Louisville Area Council of Churches and the Kentucky Baptist Board of Child Care. He was a member also of the Academy of Parish Clergy and of the panel of Radio Station WHAS program, "The Moral Side of the News."

In addition, Dr. Claypool was Roble Adjunct Professor of Christian Preaching at Southern Baptist Seminary. He and his wife, the former Lue Ann Foster of Waco, Texas, have one son, Rowan, aged 14.

THE MAN NOBODY KNOWS, a short play by Elizabeth Blake will be performed by a professional New York cast at the Princeton YWCA on Friday, February 4, at 7 P.M. A gourmet supper will precede the performance. Sponsors are the Family Service Agency of Princeton, the YWCA's Committee to Combat Racism, and the Princeton Youth Center. A group discussion will follow. The general public is invited.

"The play concerns a black man, Nathan Richardson, who has been accused of a number of crimes, and a number of white people who have been of great influence in shaping Richardson's life, but who are unaware that their paths had ever crossed."

Reservations may be made at the YWCA any time before February 2.

NOTICES

A EUCHARIST FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY, "He Gives Us Light," will be celebrated in the Campus Center Auditorium on Thursday, February 10, beginning at 9 P.M. All persons interested in participating are warmly encouraged to attend.

The service in the round will include the COCU Liturgy and a multi-media approach with slides, lights, music and "disposable art." Students and faculty of the Seminary have worked since the idea was first broached last November to make the experimental service a reality.

Music, under the direction of Senior Art Lindahl and Acting Director of Music Edward Parmentier, will include hymns from the new supplement to the Episcopal hymnal and contemporary folk music. Seminary students Bob Boenig, John Masterson, Bob Smith and Bob Johnson are assisting the leaders. The Seminary Chapel Choir will participate.

The visual arts--slides, banners, lights--are represented in the work of students Fred Nippert, Alan Blatecky, Bob and Joyce Bardeen and Peter Jordan, with advice and assistance from Wayne R. Whitelock, Director of Instructional Media.

John Grabner, Father William Skudlarek and Peyton Craighill have oversight of the entire program. Mr. Grabner, a Junior student, will offer the Prayer of Intercession; Father Skudlarek, a Roman Catholic priest who is a candidate for the Th.D., will preach; and Mr. Craighill, an Episcopal priest who is writing his Th.D. thesis this year, will act as presiding minister, or "president."

Mr. Craighill is also responsible for the corrugated cardboard lectern and altar which will be used. "These had to be made in any event," Mr. Craighill said, "to get them into the right proportion for the seating arrangements in the Auditorium. We decided they should represent the new feeling within the Church all the way.

"Intead of using eternal works of art, which would reflect the former rigidity of religion, we're turning to 'disposable art'--things put together for the specific occasion, which can either be used again or recycled for other purposes. Permanent art certainly has its place, both in everyday life and in religion; but the whole feeling of this Eucharist is of unity, of warmth, of the life of the spirit within all of the participants. Part of the expression of this feeling is the hand-made banners, slides and screens we shall be using. Part of it will come from this altar and lectern, made for one time and place and occasion."

BANGLADESH/EAST PAKISTAN REFUGEES: The Stewardship Committee has transmitted to the Committee on World Relief and Emergency Service of the UPUSA a check for $748.50, representing the designated contributions and one-fourth of the undesignated contributions of the Christmas Drive. Announcements of further grants will be made shortly. L. Charles Willard.

LIBRARY JOURNALS: Beginning February 1, 1972, the most recent 20 volumes of JOURNAL OF BIBLICAL LITERATURE and all volumes of NEW TESTAMENT STUDIES will be restricted to use within the Library only. This is an experimental action, taken following a student petition, designed to make bound journals more readily available. I should appreciate hearing any reaction directly. We have also ordered a microfilm of INTERPRETATION, which will be placed in the microfilm reading room upon arrival. L. Charles Willard, Librarian.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

YOUTH RETREATS (High School and College.) For those of you who are looking for a place to take your Youth Group(s)--do consider Great Gorge Ski Area. Here's your chance to have a time "away from it all"--a time to really retreat. Some may just want to spend the time at leisure skiing; others may want to have a one- or two-day program, where skiing takes up only one segment of time. Whatever you want to do, you can do it with your group at this fabulous area.

I (Monica McKig) will be the Chaplain for the ski area. If you'd like to bring a group up, please contact me soon. I will be happy to make arrangements for accommodations--lodging, food, skiing--or information regarding rates or other possibilities for the area. I will be at the Ski Area for the months of February and March (possibly also the first part of April, depending upon the area). So make your reservations now! Monica McKig.

THE PRINCETON DRAFT INFORMATION CENTER HAS MOVED its offices to the Fund for Peace Education, 163 Nassau Street, Princeton. Ten trained volunteers man the Center, which has counseled nearly 5,000 young men during its five-year existence. It is open Monday through Friday, 2:00 - 4:30 and 7:30 - 10:00 P.M. It is available to anyone who wants its services, without charge and without making an appointment beforehand. Dean Hoge.

DR. GEORGE MACLEOD, Very Reverend The Lord Macleod of Fuinary, will be in Princeton from May 7 through May 11, 1972. He will present a series of services in the chancel of the Princeton University Chapel each evening, on the theme "You and Pentecost." Seminary members are warmly encouraged to attend.

There is a current boycott against nine Napa Valley wineries which refuse to negotiate with the United Farmworkers. "In addition to helping an impoverished ethnic group secure a decent wage and honorable working conditions a successful boycott will mean a safer product for the consumer, since each contract signed with the Union includes a clause banning the use of six deadly pesticides (Endin, Aldrin, DDT, DDD, Dieldrin, and Parathon)." The wineries are: Charles Krug Winery; F. Korbel and Sons, Inc.; Kornell Champagne Cellars; Beringer Bros., Inc.; Robert Mondavi Winery; Louis M. Martini; Wente Bros.; Samuele Sebastiani; and Weibel, Inc.

COACH'S CORNER

The PTS Varsity Basketball Team got off to a flying start just before the Christmas vacation began. On Tuesday night, December 14, the team played the faculty of the Princeton Day School. Although the pace of the game was slow, the PTS squad outscored the opponent, 88-44. Ron Benham led the balanced Seminary scoring attack, with 18 points. Dick Ramsey, John Hershey and Dave VanderZwang also scored double figures.

On Wednesday night, December 15, the PTS squad took on the RCA industrial team. RCA, playing without two of their stars, could not keep up with the blistering pace of the PTS team. The final score was 103 - 51. Again, Ron Benham led the scoring, with 24 points. He had strong support from John Hershey and Jeff Looker. Dick Ramsey and Gene Schaffer also helped, by setting up numerous fast breaks. These two early-season victories are encouraging. The team will not play again until February, when a complete schedule is anticipated. The scoring figures for the first two games are:

Name	PDS	RCA	Avg.
Ron Benham	18	24	21
John Hershey	10	20	15
Jeff Looker	6	17	11.5
Gene Schaffer	6	14	10
Dick Ramsey	14	4	9
Dave VanderZwang	12	5	8.5

CAMPUS NEWS NOTES

(Excerpt from the First Church News, The First Presbyterian Church of Utica, New York, Vol. 30, Number 10, January 14, 1972.)

"We hope you are all saving the date of Monday evening, January 17, and plan to be with us for a time of food and fellowship . . . [the church's Annual Meeting. ed.] We are proud that MISS JEAN SWOPE will be with us to share some of the ministry in which she has been involved, and in which we have indirectly participated through our support of her. In the last issue of the First Church NEWS we commented on her work with the office of Presbyterian Senior Services in New York City. In addition Jean has been working closely with inmates at the Bergen County jail in Hackensack, New Jersey. She was, in fact, a hostage during a brief uprising and that facility this past summer. It is this work to which Jean hopes to devote her energies on a full-time basis upon her graduation in June. We can be very proud of the work she is doing, both in special ministries and on the campus of Princeton Seminary, where she is the first woman president of the senior class in the history of that institution. . ."

6. EVENSONG AND EUCHARIST FOR ASH WEDNESDAY. The Trinity Choir of Men and Boys will sing works by Byrd, Purcell, and Allegri in this ecumenical service for the beginning of the Lenten season. Trinity Church. February 16. 8 P.M.

7. DISTRIBUTION OF ASHES AND HOLY COMMUNION

On Ash Wednesday, February 16, at 9:00 P.M., a special service is planned to mark the beginning of Lent. The service will center around the theme of identifying with Christ in his death and will be an acknowledgment and affirmation (celebration) of our mortality. (Remember, O man, that you are dust and to dust you will return.)

As a part of the service each worshipper is asked to bring with him one thing which is very dear, or which represents something or someone very dear to him, which will be burned. Thus we make graphic the final destiny of our dearest treasures and greatest achievements. Then those who so wish will be annointed with the ashes, as was done in the early western church (dress accordingly), as we acknowledge our own finitude.

But this entering into death is for the Christian an entering into the Death of Christ, supremely expressed in the Eucharist where we "show forth his death." We will then receive the Holy Supper so that Christ's life may be manifested in our mortal bodies as we begin to prepare for the Paschal event to come.

Arlo D. Duba

8. FAITH AND PHILOSOPHY LECTURE: Dr. John Warwick Montgomery will deliver a public address, "The Christian Faith and Analytic Philosophy," in the main lounge of the Campus Center at 7:30 P.M., Thursday, February 17. Dr. Montgomery is professor and chairman of the division of church history at Trinity Evangelistical Divinity School, Deerfield, Illinois; director of Trinity's European Program at the University of Strasbourg, France; and executive director of European Operations for the Christian Research Institute, Wayne, New Jersey. He is the author of many books, ranging in content from an investigation of 17th Century European libraries to the trilingual "Computers, Cultural Change and the Christ," and a frequent contributor to theological books and religious and learned periodicals. A Phi Beta Kappa graduate of Cornell University, he holds Bachelor of Library Science and Master of Arts degrees from the University of California at Berkeley; Bachelor of Divinity and Master of Sacred Theology degrees from Wittenberg University, Ohio; a Ph.D. from the University of Chicago; and a Doctor of Theology degree from the University of Strasbourg.

He has taught at Wittenberg, the University of Chicago and Waterloo Lutheran University (Canada) and has served as head librarian of the Swift Library, University of Chicago. An ordained Lutheran minister, he is included in 13 current biographical dictionaries of influential personalities, here and abroad.

For the past sixteen years he has been pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Santa Barbara, California.

COACH'S CORNER:---The intramural basketball season jumped off to an exciting start on Tuesday evening, February 1st. In the season opener Gary Dill coached the Also-Rans to a 35-32 upset victory over the Neptunes. The Neptunes were highly rated on the preseason polls, but Scott Patterson, Clint McCoy and Dan Thomas sparked the Also-Ran victory. Dave VanderZwaag led the Neptunes in scoring, with 10 points. Scott Patterson scored the same number for the Also-Rans.

The Acondroplasts (which Jim Krause translates as "the little men") registered an easy victor against the Choir College. John Hershey scored 19 of the winners' 51 points. The Choir Colleg managed 22 points against their undersized opponents.

The Superstars, who have been undefeated in two years of competition, had to put on a second-half rally to top the Heroes, who simply ran out of gas after leading at half time. The final score of this tilt was 46-25. For the winners, backcourt ace John Yeatts scored 17 points and Don Luidens scored 12. Pete Schmidt led the Heroes with 16 points.

In the evening's final contest, the Warriors just managed to outscore the Fundies, 34-31. There was only a one-point difference with less than 5 seconds to play, but Jack Van Ens threw in a pair of free throws to assure the Warrior victory. Tom Tewell scored 14 points for the Warriors, and Gale Moser scored the same for the Fundies.

There are four more big games this Tuesday night, starting at 7 o'clock in the Whitely gym. If you can't be there in person, you can catch the games on delayed tape on Cannel 24.5 at 2 A.M. THE PLAYER OF THE WEEK for the first week of the season was Acondroplast John Hershey, who scored 19 points, only three less than the entire total of the opposition.

VARSITY BASKETBALL: Last Monday night the PTS varsity basketball team traveled to Western Philadelphia to take on the mighty men of Eastern Baptist Seminary. This was the first contest for our PTS squad since the week before Christmas, when they defeated two weak opponents. In the first half it looked as though our Princeton stars would handle EBS in the same manner as their two previous opponents. At one time they owned a ten-point lead. But EBS was not discouraged. By the end of the half they had moved out to a two-point lead. With the exception of a few brief minutes at the very start of the second half, they kept the lead throughout the remainder of the game, ending with a 111-97 victory. EBS had three very hot shooters who could hit from anywhere on the floor. Their leading scorer popped in 41 points. For PTS, Dick Ramsey played an outstanding game, especially on our offensive boards. Dick finished with 29 points. Ron Benham scored 24 points and played his usual "loose" game, which turned him into an instant crowd favorite. Steve Pierce with 18 points and John Hershey with 17 points were the other two PTS scorers in double figures. Our scoring was completed by Dave VanderZwaag with 4 points, Jeff Looker with 3 points, and Tom Fitch with 2 points. For PTS it was a disappointing loss. We will play EBS in our gymnasium in a few weeks. This Thursday night the PTS varsity will meet the Hun School Faculty, at Hun. Friday night the team travels to Newton, New Jersey, to play the Don Bosco Pacers. We split a pair of games with the Pacers last year, winning here (77-73) and losing at the Don Basco gym 101-83. Terry O. Martinson.

COACH'S CORNER

The second week of the INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL competition did not feature any upsets or close battles. All four teams that won during the first week of the season continued their winning ways this week.

In the evening's opening tilt the SUPERSTARS surprised no one by coasting to an easy 48 - 14 victory over the FUNDIES. John Yeattes and Bill Davis lead the SUPERSTARS with 12 and 11 points, respectively. Chuch Wiggins scored half of the FUNDIES' points.

The WARRIORS outscored the HEROES in the next game on the card. The WARRIORS were paced by Glen Fields, who popped in 13 points. Paul Rorem had 10 points to highlight the HEROES' evening

The ACONDROPLASTS were led by Gene Schaffer, this week's PLAYER OF THE WEEK. Gene used his speed and gunning ability to gather 19 points. Steve Pierce chipped in 16 more for the ACONDROPLASTS as they defeated the NEPTUNES, 49 - 30. Jeff Looker and Glen Rainsley paced the losers' efforts.

Clint McCoy and Tom York each had 9 points to help the ALSO-RANS defeat the CHOIR COLLEGE. The score of the evening's finale was 31 - 23. The points for the CHOIR COLLEGE were evenly distributed, but the team was sparked by freshman guard Dave Patton.

SERVICE DEPARTMENT
(Queries Answered)

By popular demand, here it is--the hit of the Christmas Party, as submitted by Dining Service Manager Tony Aspras and baked by Chef Willie Hennigan:

BAKLAVA

1 pound blanched almonds or walnut meats, finely chopped
1 cup sugar
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1 pound Phyllo pastry sheets*
2 cups (1 pound) sweet butter, melted
Syrup (See below.)

Combine almonds (or walnuts), sugar and cinnamon.

Place 4 sheets of Phyllo pastry--one at a time--in bottom of pudding pan, brushing each with melted butter.

Sprinkle top sheet generously with some of the nut mixture and place two buttered Phyllo sheets on the top. Sprinkle with nut mixture. Continue, adding buttered Phyllo sheets, sprinkling every second sheet with nut mixture until all nut mixture is used. Place remaining Phyllo sheets on top, buttering each sheet.

Using a sharp knife, cut BAKLAVA into small diamond-shaped pieces with the sharp point. Put one whole clove in the center of each piece. Bake the BAKLAVA at 350° in a preheated oven for 40 minutes, or until golden brown.

In the meantime, boil syrup ingredients together, 10 minutes or less:

1 cup honey, 3 cups sugar, 3 cups water; a few lemon or orange rinds; 2 whole cinnamon sticks

Remove BAKLAVA from oven and pour hot syrup over it evenly. Happy Eating!

*Phyllo (pastry sheets) can be purchased at any grocery story carrying Greek specialties.. It is packaged under the names "Fillo" or "Phyllo."

On Thursday night, February 17, the PTS VARSITY BASKETBALL TEAM, sporting a 2-1 record, journied to the Hun School to play a very tough Hun School Faculty team. The Hun School features two big men. Playing without several key players, our Seminary stars jumped out to a very quick 10-2 lead, paced by four outside baskets by Ron Benham, who ended the game with 22 points. The Hun School fought back from the deficit and led at the end of the first quarter, 20-18. The second quarter was the Seminary's downfall, as the Hun School outscored us by 10 points, making a 12-point bulge at the half, 36 - 38. Gene Schaffer, one of our guards, had a fantastic second half, scoring 8 field goals in the half and ending the game with 18 points. His hot scoring kept us in the game with Hun, stride for stride, and the struggle ended in a 76-64 victory for Hum. R.B. and Gene were aided in the scoring column by Jeff Looker with 8 points, Dick Ramsey with 10 points, Dave VanderZwaag with 4 and Tom Fitch with one basket. Jeff Looker and Dick Ramsey played a fine game on the offensive and defensive boards, in spite of the fact that Hun's two big men towered over them by several inches. The entire team did a good defensive job when they switched to a man-to-man defense for the second half.

The Varsity game scheduled for Don Bosco on Friday evening, 2/18, was postponed because of heavy snow warnings for northern New Jersey. This week you will have two excellent opportunities to watch our varisty team in our gym. On Monday evening, February 28, at 7:30 P.M., the team has a rematch with Eastern Baptist Seminary. EBS won the first game this season, 111-97. On Friday Night, March 3, at 7:30, our stars will play Don Bosco. We would welcome your support at both of these games. FREE TICKETS ARE STILL AVAILABLE AT THE DOOR.

A DEMONSTRATION PASSOVER SEDER will be held at The Princeton Jewish Center on Thursday, March 16, at 8 P.M. The open discussion which will follow will be chaired by Reverend Charles Henderson, Assistant Dean of the Chapel, Princeton University.

At 7:30, preceding the Seder, and again following the Seder, Rabbi Matt will show the principal sacred articles of the synagogue and will explain their significance.

COACH'S CORNER

On Tuesday night, February 22, the INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL season passed the half-way point of the season, as each team played the fourth game in their seven-game schedule. After four weeks of the season there are still two unbeaten teams, the SUPERSTARS and the ACONDROPLASTS, that figure to remain unbeaten until the last game of the season when one of the two must fall.

In the 7:00 game, the SUPERSTARS had no trouble in defeating the CHOIR COLLEGE, 53 - 23. Three of the SUPERSTARS scored in double figures, lead by John Yeattes who scored 18. He was followed by Don Luidens with 13 and Bill Davis with 10. Player-coach Dave Evans also scored his first bucket of the season.

Bill Grimbol scored 12 points and Clint McCoy and Scott Paterson had 9 points each to lead the ALSO RANS to a 41 - 28 victory over the winless FUNDIES. John Jayberg of the FUNDIES played an outstanding game and thus earned the PLAYER OF THE WEEK laurels this week. John scored 9 points in the first half for all of the FUNDIES first-half points and then added 7 more in the second half to end the game with 16 points.

The game pitting the NEPTUNES against the WARRIORS was the best played intramural game in three years. It was a game that featured good ball handling and some good clutch shooting. Only two points separated the teams for most of the game, but in the closing two minutes the NEPTUNES put on a spurt that netted them a 51 - 44 victory. Mark Laaser had 12 points for the winners and Jeff Looker put in 10. The entire NEPTUNE attack was well balanced. For the WARRIORS, Dave Hengerer lead the scoring with a dozen points. Jack VanEns and Art Kjelborgsen had 9 points apiece.

The evening's finale matched up the HEROES and the ACONDROPLASTS. The ACONDROPLASTS scored almost 3 times as many points as the HEROES, chalking up their fourth consecutive victory, 59 - 20. Gene Schaffer scored 15 of the winners' points with 12 points from John Hershey and 11 from Ron Benham. Graham Patterson was the leading scorer for the HEROES. Dick Ramsey had 1 more foul than he had points, thus earning the SCRUB OF THE WEEK award.
